Orange Public Library and Bayonne Community Bank Announce Financial Literacy Classes for Adults

Monthly sessions will help community members build practical skills in budgeting, investing, and real estate.

ORANGE, N.J. - October 6, 2026- The Orange Public Library and Bayonne Community Bank (BCB) are partnering to offer a series of financial literacy classes for adults in November and December 2026 and January 2027. Classes will be held on the second Wednesday and fourth Saturday of each month.

Class Schedule

- November 2026: Wednesday, November 18 (since 11/11/2026 is a holiday), and Saturday, November 28.
- December 2026: Wednesday, December 9, and Saturday, December 26.
- January 2027: Wednesday, January 13, and Saturday, January 23.

Participants will learn why financial literacy matters and gain practical guidance on:

- Creating and maintaining a realistic budget
- Understanding the fundamentals of investing
- Preparing to purchase real estate
- Using sound financial habits to pursue long-term goals.

Through this collaboration, the Orange Public Library and BCB aim to empower people with the knowledge and confidence to make informed financial decisions, strengthen their financial well-being, and enhance their own lives and the lives of their loved ones.

Register today: Adults interested in building a stronger financial future are encouraged to reserve their place. Contact the Orange Public Library to register at (973) 786-3988 or to request class times and additional program information.
